

Nov. 1. 1833.

I Gray Armstrong the father of Ann Eliza Armstrong, alias Winona we pray, to be divorced from her husband Micajah Jas Winona do hereby certify -

That the facts sets forth in the petition of said Ann Eliza Armstrong alias Winona are to the best of my knowledge and belief correctly stated - that my daughter, as aforesaid, at no time entertained for the individual to whom she has been married those feelings of respect and affection without which marriage instead of a blessing becomes a curse - and that she was induced to marry him to gratify my own and her mother's wishes. -

I further certify that the present situation of my daughter is unhappy in the extreme. She refuses to receive Micajah as her husband and from her great aversion for him I am assured she will not do so at any future time.

Deeply regretting that I should have been at all instrumental in inflicting such misery on my child, I unite with her in praying the Legislature to divorce her from the said Micajah Winona,

Sworn to and subscribed before me -

Robert Barnes A.P.
